

CTIS AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

We're proud the various awards and recognitions that we have received as a company. These accolades have led us to be respected by our peers and competitors and trusted by our clients. Our clients' trust is one of our most valued assets, and our most important recognition comes from serving our clients and knowing that we are a partner in growing their businesses. Our ongoing commitment to excellence stems from our shared desire to help clients accomplish their goals.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS
	CTIS was acknowledged as a sponsor of the First International Symposium: Technology, Operations &amp; Economics of Providing Safe Drinking Water in Small Systems and received a plaque from the World Health Organization, National Science Foundation International and Pan American Health Organization
	CTIS was acknowledged as a Pedal Partner sponsoring the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation's (JDRF) Spin to Win event which is JDRF Capitol Chapter's newest event that encourages friendly competition on stationary bicycles to raise money to help find a cure for diabetes and its complications through the support of research
	CTIS was appreciated for years of unselfish commitment, dedication and efforts in support of the Washington Cancer Institute from the Washington Cancer Institute Leadership Board at Washington Hospital Center
	CTIS received recognition of exceptional philanthropy during the National Capital Philanthropy Day from Washington Hospital Center
	CTIS was appreciated by Mayor Rose G. Krashow and the Council of the City of Rockville and the greater Rockville Partnership for its contributions to the Rockville Business Community
	CTIS was recognized by the Washington Symphony Orchestra and Ambassador Shankar Ray as a Distinguished Leader in Business and the Cultural Arts
	CTIS receives a letter from Tom Davis, Congressman, VA 11th congratulating CTIS on its success and continued effort in providing a better life for those in need and proving a true example of a citizen giving back to your community.
	Community Ministries of Rockville (CMR) recognized and honored CTIS with the Humanitarian and Advocate of the Vulnerable Award

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

	CTIS is recognized by the The Eduardo Cáceres Instituto Nacional de Enfermedades Neoplásicas (INEN) (National Cancer Institute of Peru) for contributions towards the establishment of First Preventorium in Lima, Peru
	Rockville Chamber of Commerce and Rockville Human Services Advisory Commission recognizes CTIS as the winner of the Employee Volunteer of the Year – Salute to Nonprofits
	CTIS was recognized by Health Related Information Dissemination Amongst Youth and Student Health Action Network (HRIDAY-SHAN), an Indian non-governmental organization for supporting the first ever Global Youth Meet on Health (GYM) event where Youth from about 35 countries participated
	The Public Health Foundation of India (PHFI) extends their deepest appreciation to CTIS for the generous support given to the establishment of the Indian Institute of Public Health at Gandhinagar, Gujarat, India
	CTIS was acknowledged by DAIDS Enterprise System Installer for the DAIDS-ES v1.0, Build 1.16.8.2
	CTIS receives the National Institutes of Health (NIH) Director's Award in recognition of exceptional leadership and sustained contributions to meet Federal Information Security Management Act (FISMA) regulatory criteria in Information Security in support of the NIH mission.
	CTIS is recognized by the Community Ministries of Rockville (CMR) for support towards CMR's 40th Anniversary and continued support of the Mansfield Kaseman Health Program
	CTIS received a Business Philanthropy Award for outstanding community service as a medium-sized business and was acknowledged by the Maryland Chamber of Commerce and Baltimore Business Journal
	CTIS was recognized for its leadership role as a founder and Champion by the Ignite Institute for Individualized Health to provide the highest quality healthcare in the world, and transform healthcare delivery into a highly efficient, effective, and affordable endeavor
	CTIS received the Eagle Fly Free Award from the Institute for the Advancement of Multicultural &amp; Minority Medicine awards for individual who has overcome severe medical challenges and has made extraordinary contributions through service and has educated communities nationwide
	CTIS was recognized by The Centre for Development of Advanced Computing, (C-DAC), Pune, India for facilitating the Meet on Cancer Biomedical Informatics Grid (caBIG): Cooperation for Cancer Research
	CTIS was recognized as a Charter Member by George W. Bush Presidential Center